

UTAH, 27- WASH, 3-

UTAH

Washington

WASHINGTON

35
6p
5d

State

County

Town or Vicinity

Washington Cotton Mill

HABS No. U-1 a

Structure (Pioneer Cotton Mill)

On Mill Creek near former U.S. Rt. 91 (now State Rt. 212). Red sandstone, coursed rubble masonry, rectangular, 103'-9" (eight-bay front) x 62'-9", two-and-a-half stories with small one-story addition, gabled roof, open interior plan. Built as one-story building in 1867 to process the cotton crop which was the principal product of the "Dixie Mission" which colonized Washington County. Raised to two-and-a-half stories in 1870, now vacant, machinery inked mylars, file
Card prepared January 73. prints, NO cover, 5 field photos

Form 10-444 (2/62) FN-II

HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

removed before 1910, 3 sheets (1968, including site plan, plan, elevations); 4 ext. photos (1968); 5 data pages (1968).

---